

JEWISH HOUSE STATEMENT OF COMMITMENT TO CHILD SAFE STANDARDS

Safeguarding Children & Young People

Ensuring the safety and well-being of children and young people so they can flourish within their families and communities is a core aspect of our values and mission to provide support to those facing challenges.

Our Statement of Commitment

Jewish House is committed to safeguarding children and young people, enabling them to thrive in their families and communities as we work to uplift those in adversity.

Our organisation actively collaborates with the broader community to prevent all forms of abuse against children and young people, ensuring that their dignity, care, and well-being are consistently prioritised. We are committed to being a Child Safe Organisation, continually assessing and refining our strategies to remain vigilant in our efforts to support and protect children.

We are dedicated to listening to children and young people, and we take their concerns with the utmost seriousness.

Jewish House will:

- ✓ Support and nurture all children and young people who engage with our organisation
- ✓ Promote the rights, dignity, and well-being of children and young people
- ✓ Enable children and young people to fully participate in our programs and their local communities
- ✓ Ensure the safety of children and young people, protecting them from abuse and all forms of harm
- ✓ Be proactive in ensuring the safety of children at all our premises and events
- ✓ Consistently prioritise the best interests of children and young people
